Herb Brooks, 1937-2003

The hockey world lost a great friend on August 11, 2003, when Herb Brooks passed away in an automobile accident outside of Minneapolis. He was 66 years old.

An American hockey legend, Brooks' crowning moment came when he coached an upstart bunch of college kids to Olympic gold at the 1980 Lake Placid Games. That team's 4-3 victory against the Soviet Union in the 'Miracle on Ice' was named the greatest sporting achievement of the last century by Sports Illustrated.

Brooks returned to the Team USA bench for the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City, guiding that squad to a silver medal. Overall, he posted a 10-1-2 record as the Americans' head coach in Olympic competition.

Brooks began his coaching career with his alma mater, the University of Minnesota, in 1972. He led the Golden Gophers to three NCAA titles (1974, 1976, 1979) in seven seasons and became the first and only collegiate head coach to lead a team comprised solely of American-born players to the Division I National Championship. Brooks also holds the highest all-time winning percentage in NCAA tournament history at .889 (8-1).

He made the move to the NHL in 1981 when then-New York Rangers general manager Craig Patrick hired his former Olympic boss as head coach. Brooks posted a 131-113-41 record in three-plus seasons with the Rangers, guiding the club to the playoffs in each of the first three seasons.

Brooks also coached the Minnesota North Stars (1987-88) and New Jersey Devils (1992-93) before being reunited once again with Patrick, this time as a scout on the Penguins' staff in 1996. He was named the team's head coach on December 9, 1999, and guided the club to a 29-23-5-1 record. For his NHL career, Brooks posted a 219-222-66 mark during regular season play, and a 19-21 record in five post-season trips.

A three-time letter winner at Minnesota, Brooks twice represented his country as a player at the Olympics (1964, 1968), serving as team captain in 1968. He was enshrined in the United States Hockey Hall of Fame in 1990 and in the International Ice Hockey Federation Hall of Fame in 1999.

He will be missed by the entire Penguins' organization.

OWNERSHIP

MARIO LEMIEUX
Chairman and CEO

The greatest player in franchise history and already a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, Mario Lemieux enters his fourth season in the unique role as player-owner of the Penguins.

"I love the game, I love to play, and I'm looking forward to working with our young players," Lemieux said in July, when he announced he would return to the ice for his 16th season as a Penguin. "I see a bright future for our franchise. It's an exciting time."

Lemieux's name has become virtually synonymous with the Penguins franchise, and he established himself as one of Pittsburgh's all-time sports legends even before he assembled a group of investors to buy the club out of bankruptcy in September 1999.

The first pick overall in the 1984 draft, Lemieux scored more than 600 goals and 1,400 points and led the Penguins to two Stanley Cups during the "first portion" of his career from 1984-97. He won six NHL scoring titles, three league MVP trophies and two Conn Smythe Trophies as MVP of the playoffs in addition to the two Cups – all this despite a stunning series of medical setbacks, including a battle with cancer and two major back operations, that led to his premature retirement in 1997 at the tender age of 31.

In honor of his prodigious feats, the Hockey Hall of Fame waived its normal three-year waiting period and enshrined Lemieux in November 1997, less than seven months after he'd played his "final" game.

But we hadn't seen the last of him.

It was a unique and dramatic set of circumstances that led him back to the game – and the business – at the very highest level in the late 1990s. The Penguins, faltering under enormous debt and financial burdens, filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in October 1998. And it was Lemieux, who'd agreed to defer much of the salary from his final contract, who was left as the largest unsecured creditor.

In a matter of months, he assembled and spearheaded a group of investors to buy the team out of bankruptcy and restore its financial health. They submitted a reorganization plan to U.S. Bankruptcy Court Judge Bernard Markovitz in March of 1999, had it confirmed in June and – after several months of intense negotiations with partners and vendors – received final approval on September 3, 1999.

"No one could have done this but Mario Lemieux," said NHL commissioner Gary Bettman. "Our hats are off to Mario and his investors and his management team."

Lemieux thus became the first former player to own a professional sports team in the modern era. In his first season of ownership, he led a tremendous financial renaissance that saw the Penguins break even on an operating basis after losing $13 million the previous year.

And although Lemieux's background was on the ice, not in the boardroom, his stature in the community and deft touch in negotiations made him a major player on the corporate scene.

What no one knew at the time was that the competitive fires had started to crackle inside him again – and that Lemieux himself was seriously considering a comeback.

The seed was planted while he watched the Penguins' 2000 playoff series against the Philadelphia Flyers from the owner's box at Mellon Arena, and it continued to grow when he accompanied the team to Tokyo to begin the 2000-01 season with two games against the Nashville Predators.

By late November of 2000, several weeks after conducting private workouts with former teammate Jay Caufield, Lemieux had decided to make a comeback as a player.

The word leaked out in early December and became front-page headline news. The hockey world was abuzz. Lemieux targeted a Dec. 27 home game vs. Toronto for his return engagement, and the Penguins had to order extra phone lines to accommodate the ticket demand.

In his first game back, before a throbbing sellout crowd at Mellon Arena and a national television audience, Lemieux again displayed his amazing flair for the dramatic by recording an assist 33 seconds into his first shift (sports historians remembered how he'd scored a goal on his first NHL shot, on his first shift, as a teenager back in 1984). He finished with a goal and two assists in a 5-0 Penguins victory on that memorable night.

And he never let up. He rang up 12 points in his first four games and finished the 2000-01 regular season with 35 goals and 41 assists for 76 points in 43 games. Then, in the cauldron of the Stanley Cup playoffs, he paced the Penguins with 17 points in 18 games and led them to the Eastern Conference finals, where they finally were derailed by the New Jersey Devils. Still, it was the first time since 1996 that they'd reached the third round of the playoffs.

Lemieux had high hopes for a continuation of his success in 2001-02, but a hip injury suffered in training camp required surgery in late October and hampered him for the entire season. Although he was able to help Team Canada to a gold medal in the two-week Olympic tournament at Salt Lake City, he was able to play just 24 games for the Penguins, recording 31 points, and missed the final month and a half of the regular season.

He started strong in 2002-03 and led the league in scoring for much of the season before eventually finishing eighth with 28 goals and 63 assists for 91 points in 67 games.

Entering the 2003-04, his career numbers were 682 goals and 1,692 points in 879 games, and he was closing in on tantalizing career milestones of 700 goals and 1,700 points.

In addition to his feats in the hockey world, Lemieux continues to oversee the Mario Lemieux Foundation for cancer research and neo-natal research and hosts its annual celebrity golf tournament, which raises millions of dollars for charity.

In February 2001, Lemieux announced that the foundation was making a $5 million gift to the UPMC Health System to create the Mario Lemieux Centers for Patient Care and Research.

Mario, his wife Nathalie and their four children live in the Pittsburgh suburb of Sewickley.

KEN SAWYER
President and Governor

Ken Sawyer, a key member of the Penguins' executive management team since 1999, was named president of the Penguins in March 2003 adding to his previous responsibilities as president of Lemieux Group LP, the parent organization of the Penguins and related companies.

Sawyer now oversees all of the Penguins' business operations, including corporate planning, marketing, ticket and corporate sponsorship sales, communications, finance and legal matters. In addition to spearheading the team's bid for a new arena, he also represents the Penguins in all league matters and is a member of the NHL's Board of Governors.

"Ken brings a tremendous amount of experience at both the NHL and team levels to this new position," said team owner Mario Lemieux. "He already has done a great job of restructuring our organization on the business side, and I'll rely heavily on his expertise during the coming season."

Sawyer brought 20 years of professional sports experience to Pittsburgh when he arrived in 1999 – including 14 years as Chief Financial Officer of the National Hockey League (1979-93). From 1993-99, he operated his own financial consulting firm and served as a consultant to a number of professional sports organizations, including the Penguins.

A native of Montreal, the same hometown as Lemieux, he joined the Penguins as executive vice president and chief financial officer in September 1999 and became president of Lemieux Group LP two years later.

Sawyer is a graduate of McGill University in Montreal and is a chartered accountant. He and his wife, Shirley, reside in Pittsburgh. They have two sons, Scott and Christopher.

CRAIG PATRICK
Executive Vice President/ General Manager

One of the most respected executives in professional hockey and a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, Craig Patrick enters his 15th season as general manager of the Penguins.

Since taking over the hockey department in December 1989, Patrick has led the Penguins to two Stanley Cups, five division titles and 11 playoff berths. And although the Penguins missed the playoffs in each of the past two seasons, Patrick is energized and optimistic about the club's current rebuilding mode.

"We've got a lot of young talent in this organization, we've got a dynamic young head coach, we've brought in some quality veterans – and, obviously, we've got Mario back on the ice," he said.

"We're rebuilding, but we're still setting high goals. We've always set our goals high here in Pittsburgh."

The Penguins hadn't won any championships before Patrick arrived on the scene, but he changed the mindset – and the track record – quickly. In his first full season, 1990-91, he led the club to its first of two straight Stanley Cups, and since then a steady stream of successful and highly skilled players have proudly worn the black and gold.

Under Patrick, the Penguins posted the second-best record in the NHL during the 1990s, trailing only the Detroit Red Wings. That success continued into the new millennium, as the Penguins advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals in 2000-01.

And even after missing the playoffs last year, Patrick generated some unique excitement by trading up for the first overall pick in the 2003 entry draft – which he used to select goaltender Marc-Andre Fleury.

As a testament to his skill and dedication, Patrick has been with his team longer than all but one current NHL general manager, Lou Lamoriello of the New Jersey Devils.

His induction to the Hockey Hall of Fame in the fall of 2001 made him the fourth member and third generation of his family to enter the Hall, joining his grandfather Lester, father Lynn and great-uncle Frank.

Craig was inducted for a lifetime of achievements in all facets and at all levels of the sport. And although he was a collegiate star and an NHL player, he has made his greatest impact as a manager in the NHL and on the international scene.

He was assistant coach and assistant general manager of the 1980 U.S. Olympic team that performed the "Miracle On Ice" and won an improbable gold medal, served as GM of the 1991 U.S. team at the Canada Cup and was GM of the star-laden 2002 U.S. Olympic team, which claimed a silver medal at Salt Lake City.

He parlayed his early Olympic service into a job as GM of the New York Rangers from 1981-86, leading the Rangers to the playoffs in each of his five seasons. But he is best known for his work with the Penguins since coming to Pittsburgh as general manager on December 5, 1989.

In addition to the two Cups and the five division titles, Patrick was named Sporting News NHL Executive of the Year in a vote of his peers in 1990-91, 1997-98 and 1998-99. He also won the 2000 Lester Patrick Award for contributions to hockey in the United States and was inducted to the United States Hockey Hall of Fame in 1996.

Patrick played college hockey at the University of Denver and captained the Pioneers to the NCAA championship in 1969. He played eight NHL seasons with five different teams, registering 72 goals and 163 points in 401 games before retiring in 1979. He also represented the U.S. at the 1976 Canada Cup and appeared in numerous international tournaments.

Born in Detroit, Patrick grew up in Boston and New Haven and was immersed in hockey because of his family ties. His grandfather, Lester, one of the legendary builders of the game, served as head coach and general manager of the New York Rangers and led his team to three Stanley Cups. His father, Lynn, was an all-star winger for the Rangers, became head coach of the club from 1948-50 and later served as GM of the Boston Bruins and St. Louis Blues. His uncle, Muzz, played defense for the Rangers and was GM/coach from 1954-64.

Patrick has four children - daughters Erin and Taylor and sons CJ and Ryan – and two grandsons, Ryan and Reed.

ED JOHNSTON
Assistant General Manager

Ed Johnston returns for his sixth season as the Penguins' assistant general manager, working closely with GM Craig Patrick on all team-related matters. Johnston has spent 19 seasons with the Penguins in a variety of roles, including general manager, head coach and assistant coach. He also has been involved directly with the Penguins' minor league operations.

"EJ" served as head coach of the Penguins from 1980-83 and again from 1993-97, posting an overall mark of 232-224-60 and leading the team to two division titles and a berth in the 1996 Eastern Conference Finals. He is the winningest coach in franchise history and also tops the club's list in games coached with 516.

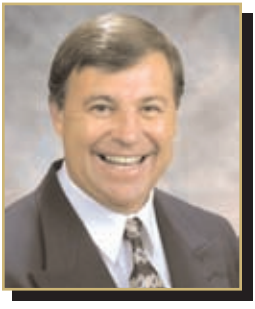
Johnston served as general manger of the team from 1983-88 and had the distinction of drafting Mario Lemieux with the first pick of the 1984 NHL draft.

He also coached the Chicago Blackhawks in 1979-80, going 34-27-19. His overall NHL coaching record is 266-251-79 in 596 games.

Johnston played 16 seasons as an NHL goaltender with Boston, Toronto, St. Louis and Chicago, earning two Stanley Cup rings during his stint with the Bruins. He was the last NHL goaltender to play every minute of a season when he played all 70 games for Boston in 1963-64. He had a career goals-against average of 3.25 in 592 NHL games, posting a 234-257-80 record with 32 shutouts.

Johnston also served as general manager of the Hartford Whalers from 1989-92, reaching the playoffs in each season.

Ed and his wife, Diane, have three children, Michele, EJ Jr. and Joseph.



GREG MALONE
Head Scout

Former NHL centerman Greg Malone enters his 13th season as the Penguins head scout, overseeing all junior, college, high school and European scouting efforts. He has been part of the club's staff since 1988 and logs thousands of miles on the road each season in his quest for young prospects.

Malone played 11 NHL seasons with the Penguins, Hartford and Quebec. During his Penguins career from 1976-83, he recorded 143 goals and 221 assists for 364 points in 495 games. He still ranks 11th on the team's all time list in points and 13th in goals. Malone's best season came in 1978-79 when he led the Penguins with 35 goals and 65 points.

Greg has two sons, Ryan and Mark. A proud moment for Greg came when the Penguins selected Ryan in the fourth round of the 1999 NHL Entry Draft.

EDDIE OLCZYK
Head Coach

Trading in his microphone for a whistle, former Penguins forward and Fox Sports Net television analyst Eddie Olczyk was named head coach of the Penguins on June 11, 2003.

Olczyk, 36, inherits a group of young, talented players in the Penguins' organization, seeking a chance to play in the National Hockey League. "It is a great honor for me to be named head coach of the Penguins," Olczyk said. "I'm really excited about the young players we have in this organization and I look forward to building something special together, something that the great people in the city of Pittsburgh can be proud of."

A 16-year NHL veteran, Olczyk scored 342 goals and recorded 794 points in 1,031 career games with the Penguins, Chicago, Toronto, Winnipeg, NY Rangers and Los Angeles. He won a Stanley Cup as a member of the Rangers in 1994. The third choice in the 1984 Entry Draft, he also was a member of the 1984 U.S. Olympic team and represented the United States in numerous international competitions.

"Eddie's a tremendous communicator, he'll be an excellent teacher, and he brings a wealth of hockey experience and hockey knowledge to our organization," said General Manager Craig Patrick. "He'll be a perfect fit for our organization, especially with our young players. He's been a 40-goal scorer but he's also been a role player in his career. He played 16 seasons in the NHL but he also played in the minors, in the Olympics and in world tournaments. He's experienced it all."

Olczyk began his NHL career as an 18-year old with his hometown Chicago Blackhawks in 1984-85 and played three seasons there, recording 180 points (65+115) in 228 games.

He then spent 3 seasons with the Toronto Maple Leafs, from 1987-1991, scoring a career-high 42 goals during the 1987-88 season and recording a career-high 90 points during the 1988-89 season.

Olczyk was traded to Winnipeg and played 2 _ seasons with the Jets from 1990-1992, recording 142 points (66+76) in 150 games.

He played for the New York Rangers from 1992-1995, winning a Stanley Cup with the Rangers in 1994, before heading back to Winnipeg.

He scored 27 goals with the Jets in their last season in Winnipeg, 1995-96.

Olczyk began the 1996-97 season with Los Angeles before being traded to the Penguins late in the season. He played parts of two seasons with the Penguins in 1997 and 1998, scoring 15 goals and 33 points in 68 games.

Olczyk returned to Chicago and finished his career with the Blackhawks after a short stint with the IHL's Chicago Wolves.

Following his playing career, Olczyk embarked on a career as a broadcaster, working on Penguins television broadcasts for Fox Sports Net Pittsburgh (2000-2003) and also called games for ESPN, ESPN2 and NHL Radio.

Eddie and his wife Diana reside in Pittsburgh's South Hills with their four children: sons Eddie, Tommy and Nicholas and daughter Alexandra.

ASSISTANT COACHES

RANDY HILLIER
Assistant Coach

Former Penguins defenseman Randy Hillier begins his fourth season on the Penguins coaching staff.

The 11-year NHL veteran was originally drafted by Boston in the fifth round of the 1980 NHL entry draft and spent three seasons with the Bruins from 1981-84. The Penguins acquired Hillier in October, 1984, in exchange for a fourth-round pick.

A reliable defensive defenseman, Hillier spent seven seasons with the Penguins from 1984-91, recording 92 points (13+79) and 594 penalty minutes in 343 games. The native of Toronto, Ontario served as an alternate captain on the Penguins' first Stanley Cup championship team in 1990-91.

Hillier signed as a free agent with the New York Islanders in 1991 and closed out his career with the Buffalo Sabres. For his career, he totaled 126 points (16+110) and 906 PIMs in 543 games.

Randy and his wife, Heather, have two daughters, Lara and Marissa.

LORNE MOLLEKEN
Assistant Coach

Former Chicago Blackhawks head coach Lorne Molleken joins the Penguins' coaching staff as an assistant this season. The 47-year old from Regina, SK has 10 years of head coaching experience at the NHL, AHL and major junior levels, and has been an assistant coach with the Blackhawks and the San Jose Sharks.

Molleken proved himself as an exceptional developmental coach during a four-year stint with the Saskatoon Blades of the Western Hockey League from 1991-95. He compiled a 170-101-17 record, reached the Memorial Cup finals in 1992 and 1994 and was named WHL Coach of the Year in 1994. He then spent three seasons as head coach of the Edmonton Oilers' developmental clubs in the American Hockey League - Cape Breton and Hamilton, coaching Hamilton to the AHL's Calder Cup finals in 1997.

Molleken spent two seasons with the Chicago Blackhawks (1998-2000), serving as both assistant coach and head coach for the NHL club. He posted a head coaching record of 18-21-8 before returning home to lead the WHL's Regina Pats in 2000-01. He guided the club to a 40-27-3-2 mark before joining San Jose's staff. Most recently, Molleken served as general manager of the WHL's Moose Jaw Warriors.

Molleken played seven years of professional hockey as a goaltender and was a first-team International Hockey League All-Star selection in 1982-83. He won Turner Cup championships with Toledo in 1982 and 1983. He has a wife, Pasty, three children, Tawna, Trisha and Jason, and a grand daughter, Lori Lynn.

JOE MULLEN
Assistant Coach

Hockey Hall of Famer Joe Mullen enters his fourth year on the Penguins' coaching staff.

A member of both Penguins' Stanley Cup championship teams in 1991 and 1992, the resilient and high-scoring right winger also played for St. Louis, Calgary and Boston during his stellar NHL career.

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Pittsburgh Penguins are dedicated to serving our community through a variety of interactive charity and community service programs. The Penguins emphasize education and compassion with programs that are designed to improve the quality of life for the people of Pittsburgh, to educate our youth and to support the underprivileged.

PROGRAMS

Score One for Life Blood Drive

Each summer, Penguins players, coaches and broadcasters participate in the Score One for Life blood drive for the Central Blood Bank. The team also donates a pair of pre-season tickets to every registered donor. In 10 years, the drives have helped save the lives of more than 20,100 patients.

"Penguins At Your Service" Dinner

The dinner has established itself as one of the largest charity events in Pittsburgh. Started in 1986, the dinner has raised more than $3.0 million for research into finding a cure for cystic fibrosis. Players, dressed in tuxedos, pose as waiters for the evening. Tipping prizes and silent and live auctions are featured. Proceeds benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation of Western PA.

Steve McKenna serves up some laughs at the 'Penguins At Your Service' Dinner.

Pen Pals

The Pen Pals program was created to benefit individuals who are battling serious illness or have suffered catastrophic loss. Many children are selected from Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh. Throughout the regular season, the Pens grant special visits to exceptional individuals and their families. Pen Pals attend a team practice session with a personal locker room tour, meeting players and collecting autographs. Pen Pals and their families are also treated to a special evening on the town with a limousine ride, dinner and the excitement of a Penguins' home game, which includes a personalized welcome on the arena JumboTron.

Team Cool Kids & Power of Reading

The goal of the program is to reward and encourage students to create their own in-school anti-drug program. The most exceptional programs are selected for the months of January, February and March with an overall winning program having the opportunity to have Penguins players visit their school. The formal presentation includes the FBI and UPMC. Winning students receive prizes and are acknowledged at a regular season home game. All participating students encompassing grades 4 through 8 receive TEAM Cool Kids school pocket folders.

Penguins/US Steel Blood Drive

The Penguins team up with US Steel each year for an annual blood drive benefiting the Pittsburgh Community Blood Bank. The drive is held in late summer when local blood supplies are typically at the lowest mark. The drive is held at the USX Tower, Marriott City Center and at a variety of US Steel mill sites. With Penguins' players, coaches and broadcasters on hand to sign autographs at the downtown locations, the event has set record numbers in each of its eleven years with more than 24,400 patients served from collections. The team donates a pair of pre-season tickets to every registered donor.

Mario Lemieux does a little shopping with a friend for Project Bundle-Up.

Make-A-Wish & Project Bundle-Up

The Penguins hold a special practice and party for Make-A-Wish children and their families each year. Children enjoy meeting the players and coaches, taking photos and collecting autographs.

The Team also participates in a Penguins Personal Shopping Day for the Salvation Army's Project Bundle-Up, a program that provides winter clothing for local disadvantaged children. Players are paired with youngsters for a shopping spree to purchase warm clothing for the winter months.

Food & Toy Collections

For the past 11 years, Penguins fans have helped feed local families at the team's annual food drive for the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank. Fans have donated 12,854 pounds of food and $10,403 prior to the 2003-04 campaign.

Every holiday season, the Penguins and the Penguins Wives Charity Association hold a toy collection at a home game for the Salvation Army's Angel Tree program for distribution to our area's underprivileged children. Fans have contributed 7,063 toys and $16,375 since 1992.

Children's Hospital Visit

A team tradition since the 1970s, Penguins players and team mascot Iceburgh make an annual visit to the Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh. Players visit each floor of the hospital passing out calendars, yearbooks and stuffed Penguins as they chat with the patients and their families.

AMATEUR HOCKEY PROGRAMS

Puck Pals

Local amateur and high school developmental teams are given the opportunity to hold a scrimmage on Mellon Arena ice during intermission. Tickets are offered at a discount rate.

Pens Street Pals

The Penguins have teamed up with Pittsburgh's Department of Parks & Recreation and the Boys & Girls Clubs of Western PA to introduce the sport of hockey to youths not typically exposed to the game. There are currently 19 recreational centers that receive program guidance, equipment and clinics from Penguins players to startup and maintain the programs.

High School Player of the Month Awards

During the four months of high school hockey's regular season, four players representing the four districts in the PIHL are honored each month as "player of the month" during a presentation at a Penguins game. Each honoree receives complimentary tickets and a commemorative plaque.

Practice with the Pens

Several times each season, local youth hockey teams attend a Penguins practice as special guests of the team. Afterwards, the teams are given an hour of complimentary practice ice. A Penguins player or coach spends time with the kids during their skate.

Lemieux Hockey Development Camps

The Penguins offer hockey skills development camps throughout the summer months for youth players age 5 through 14. A conditioning camp for 15-18 year olds and a clinic for hockey coaches rounds out the summer camp/clinic offerings.

Adult Amateur Hockey

The Penguins offered the first-ever Penguins Adult Hockey Fantasy Camp in March 2002, and the event was so well received that it has become an annual camp during the season. Additionally, the Penguins are making plans to offer an Adult Learn-to-Play-Hockey Clinic at local rinks.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Since 1992, the Penguins have awarded more than $66,500 in scholarships to deserving Pittsburgh area students. The team has awarded 40 Continuing Education Scholarships and 15 Bob Johnson Memorial Scholarships during the past 12 years.

Continuing Education Scholarships

$1,000 scholarships are awarded to Pittsburgh inner-city high school seniors on the basis of academic achievement, community service and participation in school activities.

Bob Johnson Memorial Scholarships

The $2,500 scholarship was established in memory of the Penguins' late head coach, who led the team to its first Stanley Cup Championship in 1991. Co-sponsored by the Penguins Booster Club, it is awarded to a western Pennsylvania high school senior for academic excellence, community service and for providing leadership, sportsmanship and a positive attitude as a member of their school's hockey program.

PENGUINS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

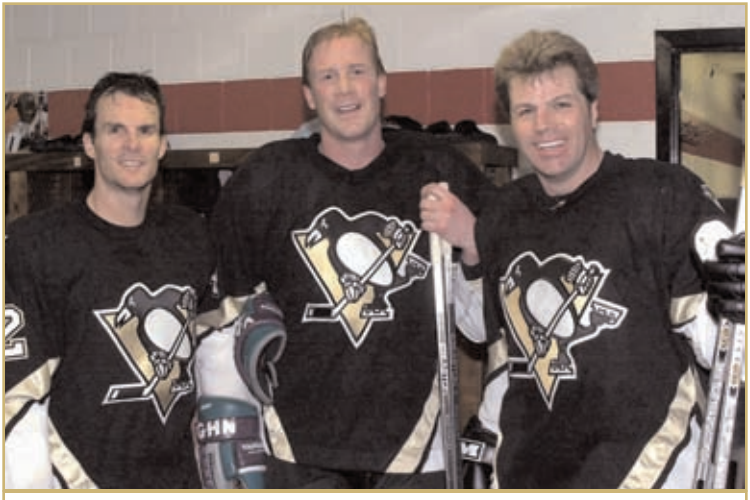
The Penguins Alumni Association held its sixth annual Charity Golf Classic in July 2003 with more than 30 local and out-of-town alumni members participating in the event. Proceeds from the tournament benefit the Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh Heart Camp, Achieva, Pennies from Heaven and the Mario Lemieux Foundation.

Over the past six years, the Penguins Alumni Association has donated more than $100,000 to local charities.

In 2001, the Classic featured a reunion of the 1991 Stanley Cup championship team. Proceeds from the event benefited Heart Camp and the September 11th Fund. The 2002 event reunited members of the 1992 Stanley Cup championship team.

Alumni members also participate in celebrity hockey games benefiting local charities and represent the Penguins' organization at a variety of tri-state area events, serving as guest speakers or participating in autograph sessions.

Local alumni members also participate in a variety of community outreach activities throughout the year. The alumni Association is led by Alumni Board Members Kim Clackson, Dave Hannan, Troy Loney, Ken Wregget and Warren Young.



Penguins alums including Bob Errey, Troy Loney and Phil Bourque have raised more than $100,000 for local charities.

MELLON ARENA

Since their inception in 1967, the Penguins have played their home games in a building nicknamed "The Igloo" – originally known as the Civic Arena and now renamed Mellon Arena because of a multi-year sponsorship deal with Mellon Financial Corp.

The Arena, now in its 42nd year of operation, is the oldest facility in the National Hockey League. Hockey seating capacity was only 12,580 in 1967, but a series of expansions and modernization programs over the past three decades have increased that capacity to its current 16,958.

Originally built for the Civic Light Opera, the Arena quickly evolved into a site for sporting events and concerts and was home to the Pittsburgh Hornets of the American Hockey League, as well as Duquesne University basketball and a series of pro teams ranging from indoor soccer to world team tennis. Teams such as the Pittsburgh Pipers and Pittsburgh Condors of the old American Basketball Association also called the Arena home in the 1960s and 1970s.

The Penguins are Mellon Arena's anchor tenant and feature attraction, playing more than 40 games here each season (two preseason games and 41 regular season games in 2001-02).

During its lifetime, the Arena has hosted the Stanley Cup Finals, the NHL All-Star game, the NCAA men's and women's basketball tournaments, the Harlem Globetrotters, professional wrestling, ice skating and gymnastics competitions and popular acts ranging from Elvis Presley and Frank Sinatra to Bruce Springsteen, Garth Brooks and the Backstreet Boys.

Featuring a retractable stainless steel roof, the Arena was built for a cost of $22 million. It was financed by a combination of public and private funds, including outright grants from the City of Pittsburgh, Allegheny County and Edgar Kaufmann.

The Sports & Exhibition Authority oversees Mellon Arena on behalf of the City of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County. The Regional Asset District (RAD) Board also has provided funding.

SMG is the landlord, and the Penguins rent from SMG.

AFFILIATE STAFF

JEFF BARRETT

Jeff Barrett begins his fifth season as President of the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins, the Penguins' American Hockey League affiliate. He oversees the day-to-day business operations of the franchise and serves on the AHL Board of Governors, representing the team in league matters.

Under his direction and leadership, Barrett has built Wilkes-Barre/Scranton from the ground-up and into one of the top franchises in the American Hockey League. He was named president of the AHL Penguins on May 29, 1998, and has since made the team one of the most popular franchises in the league with a season ticket base of more than 7,000 full season-ticket equivalencies. Entering the 2003-04 season, Wilkes-Barre/Scranton has recorded 100 consecutive home sellouts and, for his efforts, Barrett was named AHL Executive of the Year for the 2002-03 campaign.

Prior to taking over the reigns of the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins, Barrett served as vice president of ticket sales for the Pittsburgh Penguins (1996-98), as vice president and general manager of ICEOPLEX at Southpointe (1995-96), and as general manager of the Pittsburgh Stingers of the Continental Indoor Soccer League and the Pittsburgh Phantoms of Roller Hockey International (1993-95).

Barrett began his sports managerial career as assistant director and event coordinator of the Glens Falls Civic Center in upstate New York where he worked closely with the arena's main tenant, the AHL's Adirondack Red Wings. He has also worked for Olympia Arena Corporation as director of operations for Tiger Stadium in Detroit.

MICHEL THERRIEN - Wilkes-Barre/Scranton

Michel Therrien was named the second head coach in Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins history on July 15, 2003. An experienced winner at every level, the 39-year old Therrien most recently served as head coach of the Montreal Canadiens from November 2000 through February 2003, leading the franchise to a 77-91-22 record and an appearance in the 2002 post-season.

Prior to his stint with Montreal, Therrien spent four seasons as a head coach with Fredericton and Quebec in the AHL, compiling a 115-124-22 record, which included a division championship with Quebec in 1999-2000.

Therrien coached Laval and Granby in the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League from 1993-97. He posted a .720 winning percentage in four seasons as a head coach in the QMJHL, reaching the league finals three times. He was head coach of the Memorial Cup winning Granby team in 1995-1996.

Therrien took over the head coaching reigns with Laval midway through the 1993-94 season, and led the team to a 43-17-1 record in his 61 games as head coach. The team's 99 points led the league as the Titans reached the QMJHL Finals. The following season, Therrien's first full season as head coach, Laval once again led the league with 98 points, finishing the season with a 48-22-2 record, once again reaching the QMJHL Finals.

In 1995-96, Therrien led Granby to a league best 56-12-2 record (.814 winning percentage) and 114 points, winning the 1996 Memorial Cup.

In his second season with Granby in 1996-97, Therrien led the team to a 44-20-6 record with 94 points, second most in the league.

PAT BINGHAM - Wheeling Nailers

Pat Bingham was named the 10th head coach of the Wheeling Nailers on June 6, 2003. Previously Bingham served as the Nailers' assistant coach for the 2001-2002 season.

The 2003-2004 season will be the sixth for Bingham as a head coach. He began his coaching career in 1994-95 with the Lakeland Ice Warriors of the Sunshine Hockey League, taking over the team in mid-season and leading it to a 26-4-3 record in 33 games. He moved on to the Huntsville Channel Cats of the Central Hockey League in 1998-99 where he served both as an assistant coach and interim head coach for the team, which finished with a 47-19-4 record and won the CHL championship.

Bingham took over the dual roles of head coach and general manager the following season. He guided Huntsville to a 37-27-6 record and a spot in the post season before leaving to join the Asheville Smoke of the UHL for the 2000-2001 season. The Smoke ended the season with a 45-22-7 record and made it to the UHL Championship.

After spending the 2001-02 season as a Nailers assistant, Bingham took the head coaching job with the Adirondack IceHawks of the UHL. He led the IceHawks to a 44-28-4 record and a playoff berth.

For his career, Bingham has a 199-100-24 regular season record.

Bob Johnson (1992)

Bob Johnson coached the Penguins to their first Stanley Cup Championship in 1990-91. An outstanding college coach and former head coach of the Calgary Flames, Johnson became head coach of the Penguins on June 12, 1990, and led the team to its first Patrick Division title with 88 points. The Penguins then went on to win the Patrick Division playoff title and the Wales Conference Trophy to earn the club's first trip to the Stanley Cup Finals. The Penguins claimed the Cup on May 25, 1991, with an 8-0 win at Minnesota. Johnson became only the second American-born coach to win the Cup. Just three months later, on November 26, 1991, Johnson passed away at his home in Colorado. Thanks in large part to Bob Johnson, it will always be a "Great Day for Hockey" in Pittsburgh.

Rick Kehoe (1992)

Acquired from Toronto on September 13, 1974, Kehoe played 11 seasons with the Penguins (1974-75 to 1984-85). A right wing, he scored a career-high 55 goals in the 1980-81 season - only Mario Lemieux and Jaromir Jagr have tallied more goals in a single season with the team. With Pittsburgh, Kehoe led the team in goals and points on three occasions, recorded 25 or more goals in nine of his 11 seasons, and hit the 30-goal mark five times. With 636 regular season points as a Penguin, Kehoe ranks third in club history, trailing only Lemieux and Jagr. He also ranks third in games (722), fourth in goals (312), sixth in assists (324), fourth in power play goals (95) and fourth in hat tricks (8). He played in the NHL All-Star Game twice and won the Lady Byng Trophy in 1981.

Jean Pronovost (1992)

Jean Pronovost played 10 seasons with the Penguins from 1968-78 and has played in more games than any other player in club history (753) with the exceptions of Mario Lemieux and Jaromir Jagr. A right wing, Pronovost became the first Penguins player to record 50 goals in a season when he tallied 52 in 1975-76. He led the team in goals five times and points twice, and recorded 20 or more goals in nine of his 10 seasons, while playing in 70 or more games in eight of those 10. Pronovost ranks third in club history with 316 goals, fifth in points (603), third in assists (287), fifth in power play goals (70) and third in game-winning goals (42). He represented the Penguins in the NHL All-Star Game on four occasions and served as team captain in 1977-78.

Syl Apps (1994)

Syl Apps was acquired from the New York Rangers with Sheldon Kannegiesser in January of 1971. He spent six full seasons and part of two others with Pittsburgh, recording 151 goals, 349 assists and 500 points in 495 regular season games. Apps led the team in scoring three times, and currently ranks ninth on the Penguins career list in goals, fourth in assists, seventh in points, and fifth in short-handed goals. He led the Penguins in assists five times, including the 1975-76 season when he notched a career-high 99 points (32+67). He was also the MVP at the 1975 NHL All-Star Game in Montreal. For four seasons, Apps centered the famed "Century Line" that included right wing Jean Pronovost and left wing Lowell MacDonald. The trio combined for 203 points and 84 goals in 1972-73, 239 points and 107 goals in 1973-74, 214 points and 94 goals in 1974-75 and 276 points and 114 goals in 1975-76.

Dave Burrows (1996)

Dave Burrows was one of the survivors of a dying breed - the defensive defenseman - and his perfection of the art made him one of the most popular players in Penguins history. The Penguins selected Burrows from the Chicago Blackhawks in the NHL Intra-League Draft in June of 1971. He played with the Penguins through the 1977-78 season, before being traded to Toronto for Randy Carlyle and George Ferguson in June of 1978. He was reacquired by Pittsburgh in November of 1980, and remained with the team through the 1981-82 season. Overall, he played in 724 games with Pittsburgh and Toronto, collecting 29 goals and 135 assists for 164 points. Burrows totaled just 377 penalty minutes in his career, along with just six in 29 playoff games. With the Penguins, he recorded 132 points (24+108) in 573 games and four points (1+3) in 20 post season contests. Burrows played in the 1974 and 1976 NHL All-Star Games and was chosen to play for Team Canada in 1976.

Edward J. DeBartolo (1996)

Edward J. DeBartolo bought one-third ownership in the Penguins in 1977, then purchased the team outright one year later. The brightest moment during his tenure was the team's first Stanley Cup Championship in 1991. With patience and perserverance, the DeBartolo franchise endured a streak of six consecutive seasons without a playoff berth before beginning to rebound in the late 1980s, coming within one game of the Conference Final in 1989. He was selected as the Vectors' Pittsburgh Man of the Year in 1983, was named Youngstown State's Distinguished Citizen in 1984 and was a 1985 recipient of the Ohio Governor's Award. In 1986, DeBartolo was among 80 people chosen to receive the Ellis Island Medal of Honor, presented to American citizens who have distinguished themselves and preserved the values of their heritage. DeBartolo passed away on December 19, 1994 at the age of 85.

Elaine Heufelder (1996)

Elaine Heufelder served the Penguins and Mellon Arena for more than 35 years. She was the executive assistant for the Civic Arena's first building manager, Charles Strong, and worked for Paul Martha, Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., Roger Marino and Mario Lemieux. Throughout her career, she played a key role in the operation of the building and the team's front office. She retired at the conclussion of the 2002-03 season.

Mario Lemieux (1999)

Lemieux is simply the greatest player in Penguins history, the club's all-time leading scorer and the captain of Pittsburgh's two Stanley Cup Championship teams in 1990-91 and 1991-92. Drafted first overall in 1984, Lemieux recorded 613 goals and 881 assists for 1,494 points in 745 games during his first 12 seasons. He won six NHL scoring championships, three MVP trophies, two Conn Smythe trophies as MVP of the playoffs, and the Calder Trophy as Rookie of the Year in 1984-85. Lemieux then led an ownership group that brought the club out of bankruptcy in 1999. In December of 2000, he made the greatest comeback in sports history when he re-joined the team's lineup after a 3-year retirement. He currently serves the team as Chief Executive Officer.

Jack Riley (1999)

Jack Riley was here from the very beginning. The original general manager of the Penguins, Riley assembled the first team in franchise history in 1967 and served two stints as general manager - from 1967-70 and again from 1972-74. He also was team president from 1970-72. A respected figure throughout the hockey world, Jack still serves as a consultant for the American Hockey League. "Jack was the one to pave the way for our organization," said Lemieux, his Hall of Fame classmate. "He gave us the opportunity to have a successful franchise."

Joe Mullen (2000)

As a youngster, Joe Mullen laced up his roller skates at the corner parking lot in the Hell's Kitchen section of New York City. Years later he became the first American-born player to score 500 goals in the NHL. His 16-year NHL career is full of milestones, including three Stanley Cup Championships. He was a member of the Calgary Flames first championship team in 1989 and both Penguins' championship teams in 1991 and 1992. He is currently the second leading American-born scorer in league history with 502 goals and 1,063 points in 1,062 career games. Since his retirement from play in 1997, Mullen has been honored with inductions into the Hockey Hall of Fame, the USA Hockey Hall of Fame, the Western PA Sports Hall of Fame and in the Boston College Hall of Fame.

Craig Patrick (2001)

In recognition of a lifetime of contributions to the sport on the local, national and international levels, including his outstanding work with the Penguins since 1989, Patrick was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2001. Patrick has led the Penguins to two Stanley Cups, five division championships, one President's Trophy and 11 playoff berths in his 13 full seasons on the job. He was honored in 2000 with the Lester Patrick Award for his contributions to hockey in the United States. On the international level, Patrick served as an assistant coach and assistant general manager of the 1980 U.S. Olympic team that performed the 'Miracle On Ice,' winning an improbable gold medal. He was also GM of the 1991 U.S. team at the Canada Cup and the 2002 U.S. Olympic team at Salt Lake City. Patrick played eight NHL seasons with five different teams, registering 72 goals and 163 points in 401 games before retiring from play in 1979. His 13-plus seasons with the Penguins represent the longest continuous stint as general manager in team history.

Mike Lange (2001)

One of the most talented and unique broadcasters in professional sports, Mike Lange of Fox Sports Net Pittsburgh has spent 28 seasons as the Penguins play-by-play voice. He has broadcast games throughout four decades, and his colorful style has made him a hit with hockey fans in Pittsburgh, the tri-state area and across North America. As evidence of his contributions to the sport, the Hockey Hall of Fame honored Lange with the Foster Hewitt award in November of 2001. Lange's relationship with the Penguins began in 1974-75, when he broke into the NHL as a radio play-by-play man. He left for one season but returned in 1976-77, and has been a staple of the club's broadcasts ever since. Lange worked radio exclusively until 1979, when games were simulcast on radio and TV. Now he is the Penguins' primary television play-by-play broadcaster.

Anthony 'A.T.' Caggiano (2001)

A.T. Caggiano might not be a name that every Penguins fan recognizes, but he played an important role in the organization's first 33 seasons. A.T. worked in the Penguins locker room for more than three decades and was an indespensable part of the team's staff behind the scenes. Looking after players' practice and game day needs and prepping the visitors' locker room, he was the first person in the office each morning and one of the last to leave after a game. Through 33 seasons, he never missed a Penguins home game. A.T. passed away in May of 2000 and, in his honor, the Penguins Booster Club renamed their annual award the A.T. Caggiano Memorial Award prior to the 2000-01 campaign.

Les Binkley (2003)

Les Binkley was originally purchased by the Penguins from the American Hockey League's Cleveland Barons in 1966 - a full season before the Penguins played their first game in the National Hockey League. One of the AHL's top netminders during his seven years in Ohio, Binkley played in Pittsburgh from 1967-68 through the 1971-72 season, appearing in 196 regular season games for the Penguins and seven playoff contests. He ranks second on the team's all-time shutout list with 11, and also ranks second for most shutouts in a season with six during the 1967-68 campaign.

Ulf Samuelsson (2003)

Ulf Samuelsson, a Pittsburgh fan favorite for his rugged style of play, joined the Penguins on March 4, 1991 from the Hartford Whalers with Ron Francis and Grant Jennings, and went on to star as a member of the Penguins' two Stanley Cup Championship teams. A physical defenseman for the Pens from 1991 to 1995, he played 277 regular season games for the team, recording 94 points and 804 penalty minutes, and added 16 points and 123 penalty minutes in 66 post-season contests with the team. His crowning moment with the Penguins came when Samuelsson notched the series-clinching goal in Game Six of the 1991 Stanley Cup Finals in Minnesota.

Vince Lascheid (2003)

Vince Lascheid entertained fans at Penguins' home games from 1970 to 2003. For more than 30 years, his musical tunes on the arena organ survived the test of time with Pittsburgh fans. During his musical career in Pittsburgh sports, he has also worked as team organist for the Pittsburgh Pirates Baseball Team (1970 to present) and the Pittsburgh Triangles Tennis Team (mid-70s).

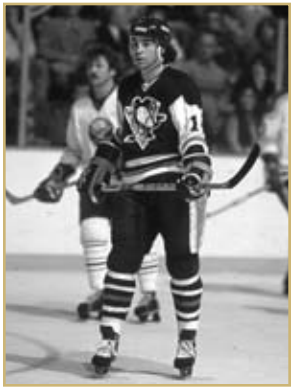
UNIFORM HISTORY

When the Penguins made their NHL debut at home on Oct. 11, 1967, the team wore the colors dark blue, light blue and white. Both the home (white) and away (light blue) uniforms simply had the word "Pittsburgh" written diagonally down the front of the sweater with three dark blue stripes around the sleeves and bottom. The logo, although not on the sweater, featured a hockey-playing penguin in a scarf over an inverted triangle, symbolizing the golden triangle of downtown Pittsburgh. The penguin and triangle were set inside a circle bearing the team name.

The following season (1968-69), the uniforms were changed so that the logo appeared on the game sweaters. The logo remained essentially the same, although the penguin was no longer wearing a scarf. The white home uniforms had a wide band of dark blue around each sleeve and the bottom, while the light blue away sweater had bands of white trimmed in dark blue.

The uniforms were changed again four years later (1972-73). The circle around the logo was removed, leaving only a penguin and triangle. Added to the uniforms were inserts of color on the shoulders.



On Jan. 30, 1980, the Penguins wore black and gold for the first time. With the Steelers winning the Super Bowl and the Pirates capturing the World Series title in the same year, the struggling Penguins hoped to gain fan support by aligning their colors with the other teams in the "City of Champions."

Boston protested the color change to the NHL, arguing that black and gold had always been exclusively associated with the Bruins. However, the Penguins prevailed by virtue of a precedent set by the Pittsburgh Pirates hockey club of the late 1920's, which sported the colors. The Pens' new uniforms were the same design as the previous ones, with black replacing dark blue and gold replacing light blue. From 1981-82 through the 1984-85 season, the team alternated wearing gold sweaters with white at home.

The black and gold uniforms remained unchanged until 1992-93, when the triangle and penguin logo was modernized. The white home sweaters featured the new logo on the front and gold shoulder inserts. The black away sweaters had the city's name diagonally down the front, much like the original team uniforms, with the new logo on each shoulder.

During the 1995-96 season, the Penguins were one of five NHL teams to introduce a third jersey. The Penguins' new uniform, which made its debut on Jan. 27, 1996 vs. the Philadelphia Flyers, featured a black background with a new, modernized logo design including innovative striping and a blend of team colors. This sweater eventually replaced the black "Pittsburgh" away sweater in 1997-98, and now serves as the team's uniform away from the Igloo.

During the 1999-00 season, the Penguins introduced a new third jersey with an eye for the past. The black sweater features the popular "skating penguin" logo, which the team wore during its 1991 and 1992 Stanley Cup championship seasons, and the newest color addition, Las Vegas Gold. That sweater now serves as the team's home uniform, while a white version is worn on the road.

BROADCASTERS

MIKE LANGE

One of the most talented and unique broadcasters in professional sports, Mike Lange of Fox Sports Net enters his 29th season of Penguins play-by-play.

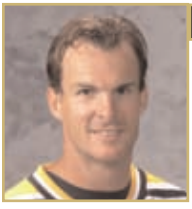
Known for his unique and colorful style, including trademark phrases such as "Buy Sam A Drink And Get His Dog One, Too," Lange was awarded the Foster Hewitt award by the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2001.

Lange's relationship with the Penguins began in 1974-75, when he broke into the NHL as a radio play-by-play man, He left for one season but returned in 1976-77 and has been a fixture on the Penguins' scene ever since.

Lange did radio exclusively until 1979, when games were simulcast on radio and TV. Now he is the primary TV play-by-play broadcaster for the Penguins, but he also calls about 15 games a season on 3-W-S and the Penguins Radio Network.

A native of Sacramento, California, Lange earned a degree in broadcasting from Sacramento State University before starting his career as the voice of the Phoenix Roadrunners (WHL) in 1970. He also served as the play-by-play voice of the San Diego Gulls (WHL) in 1973-74 before joining the Penguins.

In addition to his tenure with the Penguins, Lange handled play-by-play duties for the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1986-87. A well-known member of the Pittsburgh community, Lange makes numerous personal appearances throughout the year and is actively involved in charity work.



BOB ERREY

Bob Errey, who skated on a line with Mario Lemieux during his Pittsburgh career, begins his first season as Mike Lange's partner for Penguins' television broadcasts. Previously he worked as the color commentator for Penguins' radio broadcasts alongside Paul Steigerwald for four seasons.

Errey was the Penguins' first-round draft pick in 1983 and played 11 seasons in Pittsburgh, recording 132 goals, 272 points and 651 penalty minutes in 572 games.

A speedy two-way winger and excellent penalty killer, Errey was a key member of both Stanley Cup championship teams in 1991 and 1992.

Errey also played for Buffalo, San Jose, Detroit, Dallas and the New York Rangers in a 15-year NHL career. In 895 games, he registered 170 goals, 382 points and 1,005 penalty minutes.

PAUL STEIGERWALD

Pittsburgh native Paul Steigerwald enters his fifth season as the radio voice of the Penguins after serving 14 seasons as color commentator on Penguins TV and radio broadcasts. "Staggy," a tireless worker and interviewer, is well-known by coaches and players across the NHL.

Steigerwald developed his interest in hockey as a youngster in the South Hills – in part because his neighbor, former Penguins GM Jack Riley, gave local kids tickets to attend Penguins games.

He attended Kent State University, where he worked as one of the hockey club's broadcasters, and began his professional broadcasting career with the Johnstown Red Wings of the EHL in 1979.

Steigerwald joined the Penguins organization in 1980 as director of marketing and also served as intermission host for radio and television broadcasts. In 1985, he joined the broadcast team as a color commentator. He left the Penguins front office in 1988 for a position in the sports department of KDKA-TV but still maintained his color commentator duties. Steigerwald now works for the Penguins on a full-time basis as director of broadcasting.

In addition to his broadcasting work, Steigerwald donates time to various local charities throughout the year and serves as emcee of numerous Penguins events. He is married to Nancy and has two sons, Blake and Dylan.

PHIL BOURQUE

Two-time Stanley Cup champion Phil Bourque joins the Penguins broadcast team full-time this season, serving as color commentator alongside Paul Steigerwald.

A gritty winger/defenseman, Bourque was signed by Pittsburgh as a free agent in 1982, and went on to record 164 points (75+89) in 344 regular season games with the Penguins between 1983 and 1992. For his career he totaled 199 points (88+111) in 477 games with the Penguins, Rangers and Senators.

Since retiring from professional hockey in 2000, Bourque has co-hosted Penguins pre- and post-game shows on the Penguins radio network and worked as a contributor for Fox Sports Pittsburgh's coverage of Penguins hockey.

TOM McMILLAN

McMillan, 47, enters his eighth season with the Penguins following a 17-year career in the Pittsburgh sports media as a writer, columnist, editor and broadcaster. He covered the Penguins for the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette from 1987-1992 and served as editor of Penguins Report from 1992-1996. He also was a talk show host on WTAE Radio and KDKA Radio, and appeared on "Hockey Hotline."

McMillan authored a history of the team, "The Penguins, Cellar To Summit" in 1994 and edited two books about Mario Lemieux.

Tom, his wife Cassie and son Jim reside in Shaler. A Civil War buff, he is a member of the board of directors of The Friends of the National Parks at Gettysburg.

KEITH WEHNER

Wehner, 26, enters his seventh season with the Penguins and first as director of media relations. He worked three seasons as manager of media relations and three years prior as an assistant in the hockey operations and media relations departments.

Wehner oversees the day-to-day relations between the players and coaches and the local and national media. He is the main media contact on road trips and helps coordinate travel for the hockey department.

The Pittsburgh native graduated from the University of Pittsburgh with a B.A. in political science. He is single and resides in McCandless.

TODD LEPOVSKY

Lepovsky, 22, enters his first season with the Penguins, as manager of media relations. He worked as an intern in the Penguins' community relations and media relations departments.

Lepovsky's responsibilities include game notes, stats, credential requests and press releases.

The Pittsburgh native graduated from Westminster College with a B.A. in public relations. He is single and resides in Penn Hills.

Assist - An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

Game Played - A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

Game-Winning Goal - After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning Club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

Game-Tying Goal - The final goal in a tie game.

Goal - A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring Club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

Goals-Against Average - Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

Goaltender - A goaltender receives a win, tie or loss if he is on the ice when either the game-winning or game-tying goal is scored.

Penalty-Killing Pct. - Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

Plus-Minus - A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his Club scores an even-strength or shorthand goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthand goal scored by the opposing Club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

Power-Play Goal - A goal scored by a Club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a Club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that Club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a Club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a Club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that Club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

Power-Play Percentage - Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play opportunities.

Save Percentage - Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.

Shooting Percentage - Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

Shorthand Goal - A goal scored by a Club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthand as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

Shot on Goal - If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".

Shutout - If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a Club shutout.

Tenths of a Second - If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

Tie-Breaking Formula - At the conclusion of the regular season, the standing of the teams in each Conference shall be determined in accordance with the following priorities in the order listed:

a)First place in each of the three (3) divisions seeded 1, 2, and 3.

b) The higher number of points earned by the Club.

c) The greater number of games won by the Club.

d) The higher number of points earned in games against each other among two (2) or more Clubs having equal standing under priority (b) and (c) **

e) The greater differential between goals scored for and against by Clubs having equal standing under priority (d).

 NOTE: For the purpose of determining standing under priority (d) for two or more tied Clubs that have not played an even number of games with one or more of the other tied Clubs, the first game played in the city that has the extra game (the "odd game") shall not be included. When more than two Clubs are tied, the percentage of available points earned in games among each other (and not including any "odd games") shall be used to determine standing.
